

All members of the College community have the RIGHT to be treated with courtesy and respect and therefore the RESPONSIBILITY to show respect and courtesy to others. Students are encouraged to develop respect for themselves as persons and as members of the College community. Students do not have the right to conduct themselves in a manner that is likely to offend others.

All members of the College community have the RIGHT to work in and enjoy a safe, secure and clean environment and therefore the RESPONSIBILITY to keep our environment safe, secure and clean. Students are required to report any unsafe environments or behaviour to the class or duty teacher.

All members of the College community have the RIGHT to teach and learn without being disrupted and therefore the RESPONSIBILITY to ensure there is no disruption to another person's teaching or learning. The College aims to create and maintain an atmosphere of learning and development – socially, academically, mentally and spiritually.

All members of the College community have the RIGHT to have their property respected and therefore the RESPONSIBILITY to respect student, staff and College property. Mistreatment of your own and others' property reveals a lack of concern for the owners of that property – whoever it belongs to, including yourself. All items of personal property should be labelled to allow the return of lost property.

All members of the College community have the RIGHT to feel the satisfaction of a task well done and achieve their educational potential and therefore have the RESPONSIBILITY to do their best in class and to complete assigned tasks so as to develop with potential and to assist others in doing the same. Students are expected to take responsibility for their own academic progress by diligent and careful preparation for and participation in all the classes of which they are a member. No student, either through neglect or lack of concern is to interfere with the responsibility of others to pursue their work. Irresponsible behaviour in College or class, or the defiance of the authority of a teacher will not be tolerated.

All members of the College community have the RIGHT to present themselves appropriately and therefore the RESPONSIBILITY to ensure that they are well groomed. A student's appearance indicates how they feel about themselves. Cleanliness and tidiness are encouraged. All items of uniform are to be clean and kept in good repair. Hairstyles and make-up should be conservative and in good taste at all times.

All members of the College community have the RIGHT to be proud of the College and therefore the RESPONSIBILITY to ensure that their actions do not discredit the College. Students must conduct themselves at all times in a manner which will not detract from their reputation or reduce that of other members from the College. Offensive behaviour will not be tolerated. This includes the use of offensive language, smoking, drinking of alcoholic liquor, taking or possessing of illegal drugs, gambling, stealing or injury of another. Some of these offences are against the law and offenders may be asked to leave the College.

All members of the College community have the RIGHT to be a member of a College team or group and therefore the RESPONSIBILITY to accept the regulations of that team. When a student accepts membership of a College team or group, they are to accept all of the commitments that go along with that membership. Not to do so is a mark of disrespect to the other members of that team or group.

All members of the College community have the RIGHT to be healthy and safe and therefore the REPSONSIBILITY to practise habits and follow WHS standards to that end. Such habits would include eating, drinking, exercising and sleeping that are conducive to good health, while WHS standards would include wearing appropriate clothing and safety equipment when working in potentially dangerous areas or while playing in the sun.

If you are having any problems at home or school, talk to your Homeroom teacher, a class teacher, the College Chaplain, Deputy Principal or Principal.
